"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace."

— 1 Peter 4:10

Victory Bible Academy

Victory Bible Academy is a school for persecuted Christians. Students come from villages and refugee camps. They survived Burma's brutal violence against Christian ethnic minorities. Located on the Thai/Burma border, Christian refugees learn how to minister in hard places, and skills to earn a living.

"Your student is the best worker in my missions team, please send more!"

— Team Leader of a
Christian aid program

"After graduation, I will return to my village and speak to the men who killed my father. They need Jesus."

— Graduate

"I am able to help others with the skills I learned at Victory Bible Academy."

— Graduate

"Thank you for the letters I receive from the students which are enclosed with the shirts. They are a great blessing and encouragement. I think I am more excited to read the letter than to get the t-shirt."

— Michael

"Thanks for helping our brothers and sisters in Christ. I wore one of the t-shirts to work and was able to share God's work at CFI. Praise the Lord. Love & Prayers"

— Mick & Jackie

A History

In the early 1800s, American missionary Adoniram Judson goes to Burma. He is instrumental in many Karen people coming to Christ.

Burma gained independence from Britain in 1948. From 1962, military generals rule Burma. The Buddhist-nationalist military attack Karen and other ethnic people, abusing, enslaving, and killing. They destroyed crops, villages, and churches. Thousands flee to refugee camps in Thailand.

In 2004, Christian Freedom International builds a school for Christian refugees on the Thai/Burma border. It is re-established as Victory Bible Academy in 2018 to transform persecuted refugees into Christian leaders.

In 2011, Burma takes steps toward democracy. Violence reduces but attacks continue.

In 2021, Burma's military ousts the elected government, and unleashes a wave of violence. Gunfire and airstrikes erupt near Victory. Thousands flee.

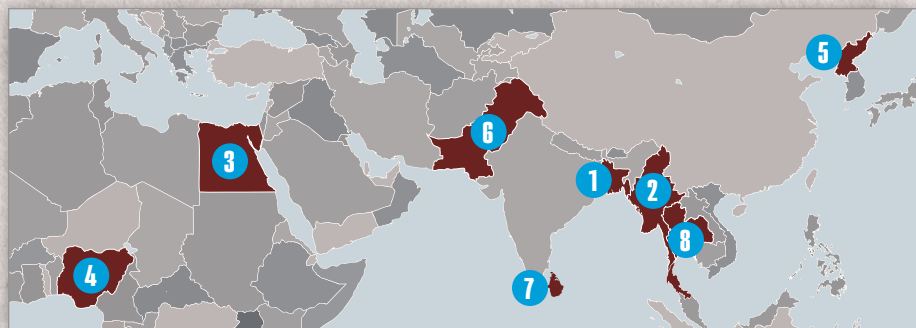

Victory Bible Academy is strategically placed and prepared to aid refugees.

“The mission class reminds us to always have a plan to help persecuted people.”

— Student at Victory Bible Academy —
